

Casa Rosa

Sleeps 4 people.

This villa is very spacious two bedroom, two bathrooms with its own private pool. Situated close to the beach and town, it is ideal for families and couples alike.

There are about 12 steps to the front door, which leads upstairs (6 steps) to the very spacious, light and airy living room and dining area with marble floors. There is very comfortable seating, attractive open fireplace and a satellite T V which receives English channels and English radio. The large open plan kitchen is fully fitted with new white units and has a full oven and hob as well as a microwave and washing machine. There is a small w.c. with wash hand basin off the kitchen. From the lounge, through large double French doors there is a good size terrace with patio furniture and magnificent views looking towards the sea, and the mountains. Going downstairs from the front door (9 steps) will lead you to the bathroom with shower over bath, wash hand basin and w.c. The double bedroom is of good size with a small en suite shower room and w.c. and fitted wardrobes. The second bedroom has twin beds and fitted wardrobes. From each of the bedrooms there is a double French door leading to a second patio and a small private walk in swimming pool. There are sun loungers and reclining chairs and stunning views to the sea. It is completely private and not overlooked.

Outside there is parking available and the path leading to the beach is just across the road. It takes about 10 minutes walk to the beach and about 20 minutes to town.
